

High Priority School Institute, February 14, 2006
Holiday Inn Grand Montana, Billings, MT

This year's High Priority School Institute will feature presentations and materials that will assist schools and districts engaged in collaborative efforts to improve teaching and learning in classrooms and the community.

Schools identified for improvement, corrective action, or restructuring are invited to send a team of 2-3 persons to participate in this one day Institute prior to the state Title I Conference. Letters of invitation will be sent to all eligible schools.

A general session with a keynote speaker will begin at 8:30 AM on Tuesday, February 14. Each participant must pay a registration fee of $30 for the Institute and an additional registration fee of $60 if staying for the Title I Conference on February 15-16. The Institute fee includes a breakfast buffet starting at 7:00 AM and a lunch.

A block of rooms have been reserved at the Holiday Inn Grand Montana with a conference rate of $69. The hotel reservation cutoff date is January 30, 2006. Online Institute registration is available now at <http://btc.montana.edu/titleone/register>

For additional information contact Gwen Smith, Title I Programs, Office of Public Instruction, gsmith@mt.gov